

Welcome to Acrobat!

This is the first page in the document that you have just downloaded. If you are already familiar with Acrobat, click on the "Welcome to Acrobat" title. If you are not familiar with Acrobat, please continue. When you have completed this page, click on the "Welcome to Acrobat" title to go to the document. Feel free to print this page as a hard copy reference.

Below is an explanation of each of the tool bar icons. There are a few other tools in the menus, but these help you navigate around the document. Page View is the view you are in now. Click on the View Bookmarks and View Thumbnails buttons and notice what you see.

The zoom tools allow you to zoom in and out of the page. One trick you may want to try is to click on the "Zoom in" tool and then "click and drag" over a small area on the page. Notice that the area you dragged over has been magnified large enough to fit into the screen. If you click on the "Previous View" button, you'll notice you return to the view you were in before you zoomed in.

Click on each of the buttons in this program and get familiar with the response. When you are comfortable with navigation, click on the "Welcome to Acrobat" title.

- Blue highlighted text means that by clicking on this word you will be sent to linked topic within the document.
- To scroll through the text click within the scroll bar on the right edge or for small increment moves click your mouse on the up or down arrow at the top or bottom of the scroll bar respectively.
- This also applies when you have the Zoom in/out button selected. If, while holding down the <option> key, you click, the opposite effect will occur.
